Welcome to Croatia

Naturist camping in Croatia is almost as old as naturism itself. From way back in the former Yugoslavian times, nude beaches in Croatia were crowded by both locals as tourists. Today this results in some of the most beautiful naturist resorts and clothing optional resorts in Europe.

Large naturist campings (or FKK campings as they are often called here) are spread along the coast and especially at the islands and the Istria peninsula. And then there are some of Europe's most amazing nude beaches, spread along the coasts of Istria, the mainland and the Croatian islands.

Because of its location and its mild climate, Croatia is a popular destination for naturists from Slovenia and Hungary as well as Germans, Austrians and Dutch.

Ancient cities and natural beauty also make Croatia interesting for naturists who don't want to spend their whole holiday with their naked behind on the beach.
