Introduction

“There are great legends and great fighters in the history of Mexico, and there will be more to come.”

– Canelo Alvarez

Welcome to Mexico

Have you ever considered Mexico for your naturist vacation? Given the fact that you just started reading this guide you probably have but if that wouldn't be the case, we're pretty sure that you will after let's say the 4th or 5th paragraph.

Public nudist beaches in Mexico are not that common, but in exchange there is a great variety of nude resorts, some of them even with their private piece of nude beach. Not only does Mexico have a year round perfect naturist climate, the country is also heaven on earth for foodies, nature lovers and culture enthusiasts. Not to mention that it's a pretty decent place for the wallet as well.

Here's already a fun fact: Because "naturism" ("naturismo" in Spanish) has already been picked up by another movement, in Mexico they speak about "nudism" ("nudismo"). You'll find plenty of naturist shops in Mexico, but don't expect them to sell sarongs or sunscreen.

Nudist resorts in Mexico

“Clothing is just as useless as selling a fridge to an eskimo”

– Scott RedCloud

Jalisco

Guadalajara

La Hermosura

Just outside the busy city Guadalajara, La Hermosura is bathing in nature and tranquility. A natural naked paradise. At La Hermosura you stay in one of the guest rooms of the traditional house, which come with king size bed and complementary breakfast.
Also day passes are available.

Tenacatita

Hotel Bluebay Punta Serena

This adults only (21+) hotel is a heaven of tranquility and the only all inclusive resort on the Pacific coast which focuses on a public that likes to sunbathe naked. Two different types of rooms both come with satellite TV, private balcony and room service. Note that nudity is not allowed in the hotel but only on its private clothing optional beach.

Michoacán

Playa El Bejucos

Villa Natura

Villa Natura is a new naturist resort at the Pacific coast. The resort has access to two private beaches of which one is definitely appropriate for nudism. Accommodations come in the form of different cabins that can put to sleep between 4 and 9 people. Shared facilities include a jacuzzi, temazcal and swimming pool.

Oaxaca

Zipolite

Hotel Nude

The first clothing optional hotel in town and still Zipolite's most famous attracts a variety of Mexican and foreign nudists year round. The hotel has about 30 spacious cabaña style rooms and its own clothing optional restaurant and swimming pool. Because of its location right on the beach this is the perfect place for them who like their vacation 24/7 clothes free.

Casablanca Guest House - RECOMMENDED

For those of you who like western comfort, Casablanca is certainly the place to go. Extremely soft beds, air conditioning, fully supplied kitchens and a large balcony overlooking the Pacific ocean. Casablanca has one of the fastest internet connections in town, a salt water infinity pool and a common area with games. This clothing optional guest house is located in a quiet area at a 15 minute walk from the main beach. Scooters are available for rent.

Hotel Buda Mar

Another clothing optional pearl right on the nude beach provides a rustic and relaxed atmosphere. Several types of rooms are available of which some have sea view. The hotel has its own pool, sun beds on the beach and an excellent restaurant. Hotel Buena Vida is located in a quiet part of Zihuatanejo, away from the centre.
