Introduction

“Bangkok is safe. If you see anybody wearing camouflage holding a machete, don’t be scared. They sell coconuts.”

– Bobby Lee

Welcome to Thailand

During the last decade Thailand has gained the status of one of the most visited countries in the world. Tourists from all over the globe are choosing this Southeast Asian country for their holidays and relax on its stunning white sand beaches, visit its magnificent temples and sample its tasty food.

Also the naked travelers have found their way to the several naturist resorts in Thailand thanks to the popular Thai Naturist Federation. This is one of the few places where you can still be comfortably naked at a pretty low price and be pretty sure that you'll go home with a nice equal tan.

Naturist resorts in Thailand

“Being naked among other naked guests is a new exclusive resort trend in Thailand called naturism”

– Gregers Moller

Bangkok

Barefeet Naturist Resort

Located on the outskirts of this bustling city you can find a small oasis to relax in the nude. The resort has the style of a B&B, the rooms are basic but decent and have TV, air conditioning and a fan. Two outdoor swimming pools, a hot tub, massage service and a bar/restaurant make the image complete. Free wifi is available. Day visits are allowed as well.
